

Ms. Maple

Sassy and sappy, Miss Maple is the holiday-icon from ARBOR DAY, an often forgotten and constantly confused with Earth Day. A non-magical squirrel named POPPY lives in her hair and helps her retrieve things. Wanda Sykes meets Grandmother Willow.

(ANNOYED) Ar. Bor. Day. ARBOR DAY! ...EARTH DAY IS ENTIRELY DIFFERENT.

(CALMING DOWN) Well for one thing, it's too generic. One day for the whole planet? IT'S JUST TOO MUCH I TELL YA!

(SWEETLY) Arbor Day is kind of like... a seed. An intention. Replacing what you take. If you need something from the natural world, you give back to it. Making the world a better place...can take many, many seasons before there is any fruit.

(BACK TO CRANKY) Ah, forget it. Outta syrup? We got plenty

(KINDLY) Take it from me kiddo, whatever is worth doing in this world is worth doing right. I'm rooting for you...Get it? HAW-HAW-Ahhhh, forrrrrget it!
